

Brenda F. Anderson
Consultant, Executive Coach, Facilitator, Author and Speaker

Brenda F. Anderson, President and CEO, Galilee Agency, Inc.

Brenda Anderson has more than 25 years of leadership and organizational development experience in Fortune 500 corporations. She has held key leadership roles in human resources, training and development, operations, accounting and financial management.

For the past 15 years Brenda has worked with business owners across the country helping them to position and grow their businesses. Brenda's clients value her ability to help them strategically align their organizations' efforts with their mission and vision.

Brenda has led multiple organizational development engagements nationally as well as internationally. She was a member of an international team that supported leadership development efforts for Alcoa Europe, headquartered in Geneva, Switzerland. She has also developed and facilitated several major organizational supplier development initiatives. Brenda has spoken at several national conferences regarding developing diverse business owners and increasing supplier diversity to address disparity in contracting opportunities.

Featured in the November 2012 issue of Black Enterprise magazine as an innovative entrepreneur, Brenda was also named in 2010 as one of the Charlotte Chamber of Commerce Diversity Champions, Pride Magazine's 50 Most Powerful Black Women; Charlotte Business Journal Who to Watch in 2008 Business Leaders, Charlotte Business Journal's 2006 Women in Business Achievement and 2004 Diversity Catalysts Winners.

Brenda holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of San Diego and pursued graduate study at San Diego State University. She has numerous professional certifications.

Brenda is also author of From Zero to Faith...Real Talk for Real Business. This dynamic book weaves key business principles and life lessons into a personal testimony about entrepreneurship. It is a powerful story that no one else will tell you about business ownership! (Amazon.com, Westry Wingate Centering Press Publishing, 2011)
